and Told

Miss Etelle Dubard, Junior at Mary Hardin-Baylor in Beeton, Texas, leads off the procession of those students who pay a dollar for the GCW for the school term. Francis Hill, at Davidson College, North Carolina, is the second one. Our daughter, Dorothy, at All Saints at Vicksburg, is the third, who she did not pay the buck. William Winter spoke for a place beginning next week when he enters Ole Miss.

Some of our brothers of the press, including Jack Dale at Water Valley, John Broezele at Brandon, Mary Cain at Summit and Brother Beecker at Brookhaven, have been ribbing Me and Rayburn. Me and Rayburn made a good race. He did not shake hands with over two hundred people. If he had shaken just five hundred pair of paws, Me and Rayburn would have sent Long-staple back to Arkansas.

This must be a record. See in the JDN where Senator Ashurst of Arizona has been in the U. S. Senate since 1912, a matter of 128 years.

See where Fred Sullens said that Mississippi never had a better governor, for did it ever have a more honest man than Mike Conner. The truth certainly does emerge from strange places. What's the matter with My Man Hugh, Fred, who, according to your off-told tale, was the best governor Mississippi has had in forty (or was it sixty) years. Have you "fell out" with Hugh since "they" sent you to California during the election?

GWTH: the armory.

George Chamberlain, the no-man of Beat Two, was a recent visitor in Grenada. George has been consistently conservative about spending county money, and his people, believing in that doctrine, return him to the board term after term.

Have you paid your water bill yet?

The GCW for a dollar for the school term will be a timely expenditure. Most parents enter that dollar into the budget.

Vassar Dubard and Mrs. Vassar, while accompanying their daughter to Beeton, Texas, will go by and look after what Vassar calls some of Mr. Roosevelt's farm interests in mid-Texas.

Speaking of things in general, a Casilla subscriber suggests that the GCW come out strong for Hitler, thus insuring victory by Britain.

While in Jackson Tuesday, I visited my buddies, Kenneth and Lewis Toler at the C. A. office there. Kenneth is as happy as a cat with nine tails being back "home", and Lewis grins with pleasure commensurate with the pleasure that a hound dog grins over a bait of hog lights.

Picked up from some newspaper. He: "Let's marry or something." She: "It's marry or nothing." Their tale, not mine.

Earl Burkley entertained a group of friends in his air-raid shelter Monday evening.

Lewis Pressgrove of Casilla, free state, said what we said of Orley Lilly was the undying truth.

Welcome back to South Street, Elizabeth Miller Grant and baby daughter. They have been staying over on Main Street with Grandma Eddleman since the birth of the baby.

Grandpaw and Grandmaw Boushe from Beat Two were in Grenada Wednesday.

Mark our prediction. When the conscription bill does pass, almost enough men will volunteer to fill the necessary gaps. Many young men, then knowing they will be drafted anyway, will go ahead and volunteer, like I did 23 years ago. If they volunteer they can very often exercise more selection over where they are to serve than when they are drafted.

As far as we are concerned, we are still betting on Britain. Britain has not yet showed her ace in the hole.

Last week, we made our monthly change of permanent mailing list. We added 37 new names to our list. Ninety percent of those who subscribe renew when the time comes.

Much obliged to Mary Meek, just back from the mountains of North Carolina, for a little wooden jug, a souvenir of Tallulah Falls, Georgia, where I worked two years. Her husband may have been the one who brought it, but he has forbidden us to put his name in the paper until he dies.

John Keeton has already bought two hales of cotton. Maybe August is about over.

Quantrill Replaces Moss As Chevrolet Dealer Here

Effective now is the change in the Chevrolet dealership in Grenada, Moss Chevrolet Company, long in this field, have relinquished their franchise to the Art Quantrill Chevrolet Company. Mr. Quantrill comes to Grenada from Lexington, Ky. He and Mrs. Quantrill now live on Mound Street. While giving up the Chevrolet franchise, Moss Brothers still occupy the large sales-room and storage plant on Main Street. According to our information they have not yet traded with the new dealer for their trading and for their other facilities. Nor has it been announced where Mr. Quantrill will have his place of business. Very likely definite information will be available next week.

In the meantime, the Quantrills, who come to Grenada highly recommended, are welcomed here by the Grenada County Weekly.

Mrs. S. Y. Caffey Buried At Unity Last Thursday

Mrs. S. Y. Caffey of Sweetman died in Grenada Hospital last Wednesday, September 4, 1940 and was buried at Unity cemetery on the following day. She was the daughter of Mrs. Felle Williams and wife of Sweetman, and was born June 6, 1891. Twenty-nine years ago she and Mr. S. Y. Caffey were married. She had suffered for several years before her death.

Rev. E. F. Fowler conducted funeral rites at Unity Church, of which the deceased was a devoted member. Oliver Funeral Home was in charge of the ceremony.

Surviving her are her husband, Mr. S. Y. Caffey; one son, Eldred Caffey of Grenada; her father, Felle Williams of Sweetman; and two brothers, Mr. A. Williams of Sweetman and E. G. Williams of Senefary.

To the sorrowful ones, we extend our sympathy.

Attended Forestry Meeting At Jackson Tuesday

Captain J. E. Shaw, Jr., and Mr. W. W. Whitaker of Grenada attended the annual meeting and luncheon of the Mississippi Forestry Association in Jackson Tuesday of this week.

This organization seeks thru educational programs and thru cooperation with other state and federal farm organizations to persuade farmers and other owners to take care of their young growth of timber and to inaugurate in this state a system of selective cutting of timber; in short, to use timber as a crop to be harvested as it matures and to promote the growth and development of young timber.

It was pointed out that Mississippi has over one-half of its area in timber, and that over half of the area is primarily adapted to the growth of timber, and that this land should not be overlooked in any state economy.

A number of distinguished men spoke. E. H. White of the State Extension Fred Merrill, the State Forester, and many others were on the program.

One gentleman spoke, somewhat ironically, of seeing a negro hauling 36 "saw logs" to the mill on a two-horse wagon, and how one negro, a log under each arm, unloaded the wagon, that he held each "log" while it went past the circular saw; and of another man whom the government gave (and set out) enough black locust and pine seedlings to plant four acres, and of how, shortly, all the little trees were cut down to make a sweet potato patch. A luncheon was served in the Edwards Hotel club room.

MATTRESS PROGRAM DELAYED

Have had to close down our mattress making temporarily until we receive another shipment of cotton and ticking. We have made approximately 1050 mattresses and have about 500 more to make.

In case you or any of your tenants have not made your mattresses and your applications were accepted, you will be notified to make your mattresses as soon as the program is started again.

In case any of you have ticks that have or have not been made please return them to us at once, in order that your record will be cleared up. We have approximately 150 ticks out on the farms.

Stanley S. Owen, Treasurer

Grenada County A. C. A.

Look over your stationery supply and replenish it while we can give prompt service. A little later, when business gets brisk, a few days' delay may be necessary. You are not going to pay for it until October anyway.

It looks like the stork is taking a vacation this week.

William Winter Addresses Greenville Legion Post

(By William Winter)

The following is a copy of an address delivered by William Winter, son of Senator and Mrs. W. A. Winter, at a recent patriotic meeting at Greenville which was sponsored by the Legionnaires of that Delta city. It is peculiarly timely at this time when our people should be thinking in terms of Americanism.

It is indeed a pleasure for me to use as my subject the emblem of the greatest democracy the world has ever known, the American Flag. This flag is the symbol of our national unity, our national endeavors, and our national aspirations. It tells us of the bitter struggle for independence, of our union preserved, of our freedom and equality, of the brave men and women to whom the ideals and honor of this nation have dearer than life itself. It cries out to us—America First! It wraps the cloak of protection just as securely about the lowest laborer as it does about the man who holds the nation's highest office. Under this flag, as far as liberty and justice are concerned, there is no dividing line between the rich and the poor, the great and the small. It symbolizes within itself the torch of liberty and the burning desire for freedom that was kindled in the breasts of our forefathers who crossed the seas in order that they might make America their home. It symbolizes too the liberty that is ours today. But our liberty is traveling strange and new paths. We know not of the pitfalls into which that liberty may plunge and be lost forever in a world of hate. We search for peace and love and understanding today as a blind man gropes for light. Built can earnestly thank God for the great leader whom we have at the helm of our ship of state and who is leading us along the way to a still more perfect freedom.

Today the people of America are crying out, "Give us more guns and planes and tanks." Why Hitler has thousands more than we have. And every word of this is true. We do need more armaments. We must have more armaments. And I am one who agrees with Theodore Roosevelt who always said, "Speak softly, but carry a big stick." But my friends, if this democracy of ours should ever fall into the hands of a mad dictator, it will not be because of an insufficient army or navy but because of powerful forces working within our borders while we go about our work in our well-known carefree manner. We sit idly by while Nazi and Fascist flags are being unfurled about us. We say in alarm, "Why isn't something done about this?" when we read in the newspapers of our American-born youths being taught to goose-step and to salute (Continued on back page)

Martha Geeslin Dancing Studio Now Open

Martha Geeslin school of dancing is now open for fall classes with location in Patterson Building on Depot St. This school needs no introduction to Grenada, this being the third season since it was established here.

Martha Geeslin, who personally directs all classes, is a member of the Dancing Masters of America, the Chicago Association of Dancing Masters, and the Southern Association of Dancing Masters. She has studied with many famous dance artists and is thoroughly equipped to teach all types of dancing. Mrs. Geeslin specializes in the preschool age, and the children's work and is particularly successful with this group, while her advanced dancers are equally well trained, and are often called upon to entertain at floor shows, club meetings, etc., in the city.

Mrs. Geeslin feels that much of the success of her school is due to the fact that every year she requires fresh, new dance routines, and technical studies, as well as keeping well informed herself on modern teaching methods, thus preventing any "stagnation point" that otherwise might occur.

The school is conducted in an attractive well equipped studio where limited classes and complete privacy are no small consideration.

For information Mrs. Geeslin can be reached at the studio on Depot St. or telephone 322.

ELECTION COMMISSIONERS NAMED

The Grenada County Election Commission, composed of Ed Underwood, S. H. Horton and W. W. Whitaker, will shortly receive their commissions.

Mr. Underwood is the appointee of the Attorney General, Hon. Greek Rice. Mr. Horton is the appointee of Governor Paul B. Johnson, while Mr. Whitaker is the appointee to the Secretary of State, Hon. Walker Wood. All of these gentlemen have had previous experience on the commission.

L. H. Gant Buried at Bethel Cemetery Thursday

Mr. Leonard H. Gant, splendid citizen of southern Grenada County, who died last Wednesday, September 4, 1940, was buried at Bethel Cemetery in Carroll County last Thursday.

Seventeen years ago he and his wife, Mrs. Lottie Gant, were married. He was born March 17, 1877, and therefore was nearly 64 years of age. He lived a useful life, and took a great interest in his community, especially the school, as he was trustee of Calvary School several terms. He was never ostentatious in manner but, on the contrary, was modest in his manner and charitable of the views of others, and was not prone to intrude himself or intrude his opinions upon others.

Two ministers, Rev. E. R. Henderson and Rev. W. M. Hill, conducted the simple ceremonies which marked the end of Mr. Gant's earthly journey. Six neighbors, Billo Nail, Leslie Little, Edward Costlow, Joe Nail, and the two undertakers served as pall bearers.

Surviving him are: his widow; one daughter, Miss Minnie Gant; two step daughters, Mrs. Charles Hamby; and Mrs. C. A. Peg, all of this county; and one sister, Mrs. Will Nail, of this county.

To the sorrowful ones we extend our sincere sympathy.

Welcome! to The City Beautiful

Recent additions to the citizenship of Grenada, four of which are published each week in cooperation with the Lions Club are:

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Harrison, formerly of Greenwood, now living at the Baker home on Main Street. Mr. Harrison is with the State Highway Department.

Mr. E. B. Davis, living in the Rogers home on South Street, travels for the Belknap Hardware Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stubbs, formerly of West Point, Mr. Stubbs is Vocational teacher at GHS.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Tighman, formerly of Louisiana, now occupying a home on No. 7 Highway. Mr. Tighman is with the Phillips Lumber Company.

The World Wags Wearily, Woefully On

They are still having a terrible war in Europe.

WANTED: A free ride to Memphis Friday, Saturday or Monday. I have finally got my papers to get in the Vets Hospital. Anyone having a seat, let me know. You will be doing the public a service by getting me out of town for awhile.

Most parents miss the chillen running around the house n't day since they have started to school, not that but we can stand it.

Mr. Walter Worsham Died Monday at Providence

Mr. Walter Lee Worsham, long prominent in Grenada County affairs, died in his home near Providence Monday, September 9, 1940, after a long and tedious illness.

Mr. Worsham, a member of a family long identified with eastern Grenada County, was born in that community on October 26, 1875, and therefore passed only a short time of living a full three-quarters of a century. Since 1909 he has been a member of the Red Hill Presbyterian Church, just over in Montgomery county. On March 11, 1909, he and Miss Lula Blakey were married. He and his wife lived their life together in that community and there reared a fine family, all members of which are now grown.

Funeral services led by Rev. F. Z. Hiffstatter, were held at Providence Cemetery Monday afternoon and were attended by a large group of relatives, friends and neighbors.

Pall bearers were: Ernest Worsham, Lee Taylor, Worsham, Grady Worsham, Bill Worsham, Arthur Henshill and J. D. Blakey.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Lula Blakey Worsham, five sons, Talford, Burton, W. J., Marshall and Walter Jr., all of this county; and three daughters, Mrs. F. W. Huff, sister of Minnie, and Mrs. Buford Martin and Miss Mazie Emma Worsham of this county.

To the sorrowful ones, sympathy is extended.

Power Company Announces Personnel Changes

Important changes in the Mississippi Power and Light Company, which were announced today to the Grenada County Weekly by C. V. McCarty, manager of that company's Grenada division.

Mr. J. L. Henderson, formerly sales manager in McCarty's division, is assigned to the Grenada division, taking the place of C. B. Lay, who has been transferred to the Jackson division as residential supervisor.

Another new comer to Grenada is Mr. William M. Sutton, Cleveland new dealer coordinator in the Grenada division.

Mr. Henderson, originally from Belchertown, has been with the Mississippi Power and Light Company since 1923, when he became the first home lighting specialist. He has worked in the residential, commercial and industrial sales departments and served as sales supervisor until his promotion. He is a member of the First Baptist Church, Grenada Lions Club and has been active in the Chamber of Commerce and other civic affairs.

Mr. Sutton started out with the company as a junior salesman in 1924 in Jackson. He has since served as supervisor in McCarty and Cleveland. He is married and has one son, Buddy. He was president of the Baptist Sunday School Class in Cleveland.

While Mr. Lay's friends hated to see him leave Grenada, they wish for him continued success with the Mississippi Power and Light Company.

ARMORY MATTER DEFERRED BY COUNCIL

Faced with a petition containing about 200 names, which petition requested an election on the subject of issuing $11,000 in bonds to help finance the erection of a county-armory, the City Council again deferred action on the matter.

MRS. MARDERS APPOINTED

Mrs. Gene Marders was appointed Monday night by the City Council to take the place of Mrs. Lella Yeager, recently resigned as manager of the city-owned Community House. This appointment was made upon the recommendation of the Community House committee.

ANTS STOP TELEPHONE SERVICE

Henceforth we are going to have to call this an Ant Den instead of a Chinch Den or Roach Den, for a colony of ants made, or were making until Trotman broke them up, a winter home in our French telephone receiver. For several days it was difficult to "get Central", and oftentimes after we got Central service was interrupted. Upon investigation by the telephone sleuth, Trotman, the above facts were disclosed, that these ants were breaking the delicate circuit within the receiver. Ant that a lie?

We have the Tom Watson watermelon, a grand, green and glorious fruit. Georgia had its Tom Watson, the grand old fire eater of Thomaston. But the GCW has a better Tom Watson (McCauley) than any, for he kicks in $1.50 annually.

PTA To Hold Initial Fall Meeting Sept. 19th

The Grenada Chapter of Parent Teachers Association will hold its first meeting after the summer interim with teachers, interest and activities, on Thursday, Sept. 19th, at a social meeting at the Community House at eight o'clock in the evening.

The officers for this year are planning to make this one of the outstanding meetings of the year.

A delightful program, a social, and the introduction of the family, especially emphasizing new members of the faculty will make a most worthwhile and charming way to spend the evening. All parents and friends of the school chapter are invited to come. Those who are interested in this organization are asked to come to this first meeting and meet the teachers and faculty to make the acquaintance of the home.

Homecoming begins on Thursday at 8 o'clock. PTA's Community House.

Mrs. M. M. Smith, president.

There are seven PTA's. Presidents include: Mrs. M. M. Smith, Mrs. R. R. Burkle, Mrs. J. D. Smith, Mrs. J. D. Smith, Mrs. J. D. Smith, Mrs. J. D. Smith, Mrs. J. D. Smith.

The secretary is Mrs. J. D. Smith.

The treasurer is Mrs. J. D. Smith. Attend this meeting and you will feel closer to the school, the PTA, the Grenada School and the faculty all the rest of the year.

Another session of school has started, and all who are in the organization in connection with our school and school children are beginning to function. The Parent Teachers Association, one of our most important civic groups, is getting ready for a great year. Soon a wonderful fund of some school patron will ask you to join the P. T. A. when you give the fifty cents, which is the membership fee, you will be helping in a fine way. One half of that fee is sent to state headquarters to help carry on the work from that central location. The other twenty-five cents is kept here for use in local activities.

It would be well for the entire community to keep more about the activities of this organization. Among the projects which it sponsors and assists are: the high money where last year 70 underprivileged boys and girls were given a hot breakfast each day during the school year; the PTA's organization which gives to boys from 9 to 12 the highest type of physical, mental and moral ideals; Health Day and Summer Round Peg a project that gives necessary medical and dental attention to those children unable to have it without assistance; extra material for dress rooms; and the teacher in the work with pupils slightly behind the average; play ground equipment and beautification. There are many places where the money from your membership dues is needed.

But the organization needs not only your financial help, it needs your moral support. Be P. T. A. conscious. Think about it, talk about it, attend its meetings. You will get an inspiration from its contacts and enthusiasm, and from the knowledge that all over these United States there are other Parents Teachers Associations, carrying on this splendid work for school boys and girls, the future, men and women of our great country.

MRS. O. R. LILLY, Chairman of Committee.

Grenada County Soil Erosion Control Assn. Organized

The organization of the Grenada County Erosion Control Association, designed to promote more efficient and less costly building of terraces and ditches on farm land, was completed last week by the election of officers and naming of a managing engineer and two tractor and grader operators. By authority of a board law passed by the State Legislature, Grenada County, one might say, lent its credit to the association for the purchase of the necessary equipment and this machinery is already here and in operation upon its first mission on lands of Clarence Head, E. B. Scott and E. L. Atkinson in Beat Five.

Officers are: W. O. Geeslin, president; W. B. Hendrix, vice-president; J. B. Parker, vice president and J. W. Prichard, secretary-treasurer. The Board of Directors is composed of the above named gentlemen and T. J. Marter, A. A. Henson and A. W. Hammonds. The board named W. A. Hayward as Managing Engineer. W. L. Allen and Henry Williams were named tractor and grader operators.

Twenty-two hundred acres of land are already "signed up" for work by this outfit for ditching and terracing. Other farmers who wish such work done should apply at the office of the County Agent.

My Man Roosevelt certainly did pin down the ears of Windy Willie Wednesday night.

Let's Postpone Both of them

We used to miss the New Deal and all its phases and all its implications. No little top minnow editor ever had so much to say about the RFC and all those alphabetical nuisances. But we quit a year or so ago, for we had no more effect than a woodpecker pecking on the rock of Gibraltar. All we got was a sore pecker.

We decided that we just wanted to live on to see where it would all end. We decided that, if the New Dealers would let us on the gravy train, we would get on and ride to the end of the line with them.

Everyone is bound to realize that payday for all this dandyfiness is both inevitable and inescapable. Everyone is bound to realize that even the great U. S. Congress cannot repeal the hoary law, "Want shall follow Waste", and is bound to realize that somewhere in the future this country is going to have a terrible payday to meet.

Likewise, (and this is where we get on the train), everyone is bound to realize that death is both inevitable and inescapable. Everyone is bound to realize that even the great U. S. Congress cannot repeal the hoary maxim, "The uncertainty of life and the certainty of death."

We want to put off both death and payday as long as possible, and so does Roosevelt, and we are for him and for these postponements 100 percent. Therefore, let us for Roosevelt and even for a third term.

First Columnists

Like Mike Coker says, the First Columnists are more dangerous to our country than Fifth Columnists.

The First Columnists, such fellows as Blum, were more responsible for the quick fall of France than were the Fifth Columnists. The men placed in high positions in the government preached the More Abundant Life, Shorter Hours and More Pay, and such illogical stuff as that. They preached what the people wanted to hear, not what they should hear.

East of the Rhine River the people were working more hours per day, more days per week; those west of the Rhine were working less hours a day, and less days a week. It was inevitable that the idlers fell easy prey to the workers.

The First Columnists are working in our own nation, yes even in our own state. They preach the More Abundant Life, More Pay for Less Work. They preach More from the Government and Less Taxes. They say that the old folks should receive pensions far beyond the ability of the taxpayers to pay; they say that many things should be free, including hospitalization and text books. These First Columnists are worse than any Fifth Columnists who seek and occupy high offices. They feed and delude the people, especially the unthinking people. They get on whatever side of the question as is then popular, and are quick to shift sides when occasion demands.

Let's Teach Americanism

This country is overrun with long-haired foreign professors who have run away from the dangers of their respective homelands to seek freedom from danger under our flag. These fellows are filled with all kinds of isms, all kinds of foreign bunkum and bull.

Some of our people look upon the presence of this bunch of refugees as a real asset, and think that these fellows should be placed in our own colleges and universities to teach their stuff to our youth.

Most of this bunch, on the contrary, should be gagged. Their theories of economy and their theories of government have led Europe to the very brink of dissolution. Instead of placing them in classrooms as instructors, they should either be deported or silenced. We already have too damn many isms in this country. Our people already are too prone to "worship" anything that comes from abroad. Our people are too prone to look down upon Americanism.

If those long-haired dudes thought so much of their respective countries, why did they not stay at home and help defend it? If their isms and their theories of government were so "grand", why did they leave, and why don't they go back speedily.

Postponing the Draft

This country either faces an emergency or it does not face an emergency. This country either needs an army or it does not need an army.

If it faces an emergency today, we believe that the emergency will be greater in sixty days; and if we need an army today, we believe we will need it worse sixty days from now.

Congress has postponed the operation of the draft for sixty days. Why not just postpone the emergency and be done with it. Better still, just postpone Hitler and Mussolini.

Postponing the operation of the draft even a day longer than absolutely necessary looks to us like the rottenest kind of politics. It looks like the congressmen want to get the matter beyond election day.

Save Hay

Farmers get tired, we know, of town editors telling them what to do. However, this particular town editor knows what he is talking about when he advises that every available patch of grass be cut and saved for hay for the coming Winter and Spring.

Corn crops are short, terribly short in most sections. It is too late to plant anything else this year, but it is not too late to get out the mowing machines and cut all possible hay. Hay is going to be hay before the grass sprouts out next Summer.

Manual Training

Schools and colleges all over the state and nation are opening. Another school year is beginning. Another opportunity to teach children something to do with their hands has come. From indications that we are able to sense, we are going to have another year spent in teaching singing and neglecting soldering; another year teaching calisthenics and neglecting carpentry; another year of teaching football and baseball and neglecting lathe work and blacksmithing.

The greatest lack today in this Nation, in its frantic efforts to get ready to start to begin to prepare, is to be found in trained hands. We have ample coal and steel, ample electric power and means of transmitting that power, we have plenty of machines, but we have relatively few skilled hands to do these skillful tasks.

We can begin in no better place than Grenada. We earnestly beg of our school authorities to establish a manual training department, whatever it costs, so that the present crop of boys and girls will not, as all crops in the past past have done, leave school with no knowledge whatever of anything that will help make them a living.

Unfortunately, everyone cannot find a job teaching. Everyone cannot have a so-called white collar job. SOMEBODY must work with the hands. Those who work with their hands in adult life should not waste twelve years in school learning things that they will never use. On the contrary, they should be taught things to do with their hands.

Speaking of work with the hands, we recall that a very wise man once told us that the man who can "use these" (exhibiting his hands) skillfully, occupies the most secure place in the ever-changing world. We believe he is right. Even in the very depths of the depression, few SKILLED men suffered, and mighty few were without work. Today, SKILLED HANDS and SKILLED MEN are very, very scarce.

Repeating, we hope our own schools will start to training the hands of the children, even if the children fail to learn a few non-essential things like "when Romulus sucked the wolf" or "what is the co-efficient of the interior angle". The latter is mere bull and boloney, but knowing how to saw a straight line or to weld a broken plow point are valuable.

We Will Be An Example

If Grenada County continues its present speed in reducing its bonded debt, it will become a real "example" to other counties in the state before long. Frankly, this country is on the road to becoming one of the best financed counties in the state.

Every good citizen should encourage the county supervisors to continue this tendency, for, with lessened debts, we can look forward to much lower tax levies. In fact, the owners of homes can look forward to the time when they will have scarcely any taxes at all to pay. At this time, you know, homeowners are exempt from all taxes EXCEPT taxes for paying county bonded debts. With the debt either removed entirely or greatly reduced, that class of taxpayers may have NO TAXES AT ALL to pay soon. We refer to the homes in the county.

It is a pity that the city taxpayers have no such bright prospect as the county taxpayers. Conservative citizens of the city already are a little fearful of the tendency in the city. What with pavements, industrial bonds, etc., the city faces no such rosy prospect as does the county.

Hard to Understand

Out in Beat Two, the tax rate on homes is 9.75 mills; on other property, 1.75 mills. In other words, the home-owner pays ONE-FOURTH of the amount that he used to pay. This reduction in taxation was, of course, due to the homestead exemption law passed during the White administration.

A few days ago, Hugh White was a candidate for the U. S. Senate against the self-styled "poor man's friend", Theo G. Bilbo. The people of Beat Two marched to the polls. The total vote in Beat Two was 47 for White, who had reduced the taxes on homes to ONE-FOURTH what it used to be; and 58 for Bilbo, the "poor man's friend."

This is hard to understand, but it is the truth nevertheless.

Can't Get Excited

We cannot get excited about the horrible (?) tales that the Commercial Appeal carries about the atrocities (?) perpetrated by the Dark Angel of Crittendon County, Arkansas.

One reading the esteemed C. A. might think that the worthwhile picked up and jailed by the Arkansas policemen were over at West Memphis picking daisies, or innocently chasing water bugs or lizards, and that a big, burly ogre, dressed in Arkansas uniform came up, bludgeoned the daisy picker or lizard chaser and hauled him off to a vile cell in the Marion jail. That's stretching our imagination too much.

We have been through West Memphis and through Marion and were never molested, even though there were times when we went to West Memphis on missions more complex than to pick daisies or chase lizards and water bugs.

We just cannot believe that the hands of these much publicized victims were uniformly as clean as the C. A. seems to indicate.

Oh, rats.

Yes, Its A Pity

After looking at the fine lands being opened up below the Sardis dam, we agree that it's a pity that we have no such dam on the Yalobusha River so that the huge acreage of fine lands in this valley, not now susceptible to cultivation, could be utilized by its owners.

Yes, it's a great pity, and that's all there is likely to be to it. Just a pity and nothing else.

Before August 27th, we had some hope for something being done about the matter.

We have no hope now, and our people might as well forget dams on the Yalobusha until we get "another deal". In fact, we are not going to waste any breath, time, or ink on the matter.

Poor Mississippi!

Now Is the Time to Plant Your Fall Garden

(Mrs. Velma Neely, H. D. A.)

If your fall garden has been planted, your work for September should include frequent cultivation or mulching, fertilization with nitrate of soda, thinning and the sowing of additional plantings of mustard, tendergreens, turnips and lettuce.

If your fall garden is NOT planted, GET BUSY. September sowings of the following vegetables will be especially worthwhile this year: beets, carrots, Swiss chard, head and leaf lettuce, mustard, onion, radish, turnips, kale, tendergreens, and Chinese cabbage.

Beets contain health-giving vitamins B1, Use Variety Detroit Dark Red. Carrots are rich in vitamin A and B. Good varieties are Imperator, Chantenay and Chantenay Red Core. Mustard contains Vitamins A and B. Varieties are Giant Southern Curled and Florida Broadleaf. Make two or three sowings between September and November and give clean culture. Tendergreens can be grown like mustard and make a fine salad when cooked with mustard.

Onions that are tender and sweet can be had from seed sown in September. Try some winter radish this year, using a variety like China Rose or Black Spanish. These varieties will stand severe freezes. The round break-fast varieties are also good for fall planting.

Turnips are also sown broadcast. Varieties are: The Japanese turnip, recommended for plantings made before September 15 because it is resistant to lice attack; the purple globe is an excellent variety for planting after September 15th. Kale has the highest mineral content of any vegetable grown in our gardens. It is a real health-giving salad vegetable.

Chinese Cabbage. If you have not grown this vegetable in your garden you have missed a treat. Try it this year, growing the variety Chihill and plant before September 20 in Central and North Mississippi.

Every person who can have a fall garden should plant one. Just get accustomed to fall gardens as well as spring gardens, then you will find no trouble with the fall plantings.

Plague of '78 Saw Grenada A City of Death and Sorrow

Mrs. M. S. Walker, our alert and ever interesting correspondent at Duer Hill, kindly sends us the following, which will be of interest to all our readers:

"From the Lloyd Binford Library (one of the sections in our local WPA library) we find a book of poems by William Walton Hoskins, native Mississippian, born at Lexington, Holmes County, on the 2nd day of August, 1856, and was 24 years of age at the time these poems were written. One that will be of much interest to Grenada people follows:

GRENADA IN THE PLAGUE OF 1878

How like a grave Grenada looks— Her white walls cold and bare, Gleam ghostly, tall and gaunt within The sunlight's lurid glare; A gloom's calm palls on the air And stifles life and breath. Whilst over all the silence hangs The flaming sword of Death.

No sound is heard through all the streets

Once echoing with life, Except the muffled tread of Him Who wields His ruthless knife; And the sad wail of broken hearts That see their loved ones die. All powerless to stay the ill. Though standing close by.

Grenada weeps. Her mother heart, In anguish pain and fear, Throbs wildly as her children's cries of sorrow reach her ear; The frightened world has drawn apart; within its inmost cell, And left her all alone, to drink Her cup of molten Hell.

Yet, smitten deep with mighty grief Grenada, crushed and bruised by pain The world may never know, Grenada, over whose fair form The shroud of Death is cast. Still brave and firm a Hazard guards Her Ishmaels to the last.

All hail the noble hands that strive To stay the Demon's curse; All hail the noble hearts that dare Defy the Fever's force; All hail the noble souls that fight Against the Reaper's rage, That strive and die to live again On History's Martyred page.

Grenada, noble-like in tears, Weeps floods and floods of grief, And Rachel-like, denies herself The comfort of relief. Yet, cursed and torn today with pain, And anguish fierce and deep, Tomorrow she will wear a crown Of tears she now doth weep.

Tomorrow? Stricken ones look up. The night is dark and vast, But when the morning's sun doth rise Its heaviness is past: God holds us all within the palm Of His almighty hand, And sends us waves of joy and grief Alike at His command.

He knoweth best how to dispense His providence to man, And every sorrow hath its place In His infinite plan; He would not send this ill to you. If he did not foresee Some greater good that, from its touch In future was to be."

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Vance and daughter, Barbara Ann, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Harbin.

The sixth grade English class met and organized and elected officers on Friday, Sept. 6. The following officers were elected: Curtis Lott, president; Sarah Lou Collins, vice president; Odell Haley, secretary-treasurer; James Edward Blaylock, and sponsor, Mrs. Chester Lott.

MT. NEBO NEWS

Hardy Carter left this morning for Memphis to be treated by Dr. Gray, a specialist there. Mr. Carter's many friends wish him to be soon restored to health.

Our old friend, Henry Schmitz, who makes his home with his son, Tillman, but votes at Air Mount, showed what an eighty year old man can do when the will power is strong and so as all here were busy with hay. He started out on election morn to walk the 12 miles and he did, he said there was a man in the race. He had voted for thirty years and he yearned for another shot, his man now.

Our valued friend, Luther Wooten, of Pittsboro, visited the home of Hardy Carter Sunday. Luther is acting deputy there while sheriff Kimball is very ill.

Prof. Charles Byars, who has been bed-ridden, and suffering from an injury he received three years ago, was moved last Saturday to his father's home at Big Creek.

Miss Betty Carter started her school here last Friday. She says everything looks favorable and the children are all "farin" to go.

Prof. Fred Burke, assisted by Mrs. Wyatt, started the Coles Creek School last week. Everything all set for a successful term.

MILK FROM COTTON

"Let them eat cake," say the world's finest animal breeders. Like cotton candy to a youngster, cottonseed cake and meal are favorite food for millions of head of cattle, sheep, workstock, poultry, and swine.

The cotton farmer and the cotton industry has a cash concern in the case of diversification. In cottonseed as well as in other farm uses, the cotton industry has helped make diversified farming practical for the cotton belt.

Yet there is another important diversification which cotton makes possible in the cotton belt. Cotton's cash income makes the farmer a diversified customer for every business. Approximately half this total income from

COUNTY AGENT GIVES TIMELY ADVICE

Planting Forest Trees: Your A. A. A. Program has allotted each farm $30.00 extra soil-building payment for planting 4 acres of pine and locust trees. This payment is $7.50 per acre and the trees (1000 per acre) cost $2.00 per acre from State Nurseries.

These trees will be purchased thru our County Forest Ranger, J. E. Shaw, Jr. Orders for these trees will have to be made by September 25 before the supply is sold out. A deposit of $1.00 per 1000 trees is required with each order. All orders for these trees must be made at the County Agent's Office before September 25. Farmers may give assignments on Conservation checks instead of paying cash if preferred.

It stands to reason that the more we use cotton the more we can use the cotton dollar.

farm plant at least 25 per cent of the tilled acreage in summer or winter legumes, (corn and peas inter-planted will not count) or be penalized $5.00 per acre that they fail to meet the 25 per cent. Unless the farmers of the south harvest a large supply this fall, seed prices will be extremely high next year.

May I urge that you and your tenants save as many seeds of peas, soybeans and lespedeza as possible. We should save all we need to plant and some to sell. "Lespedeza seed pans" should be bought or borrowed where needed. Farmers should urge tenants to pick all peas and thash all soybeans possible. Your Cooperative Cold Storage Plant will buy all your surplus seed.

DUCK HILL NEWS
by Mrs. M. S. Walker

Mrs. Thelma Waters of Leland spent the week-end with Mrs. J. H. Edwards.

Mr. Lyndall Neal, Fred Barham and Mr. George were guests of the E. R. Campwells Sunday from Crenshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Williams and little son, Bobbie, and Miss Estelle Wells spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Shaw Williams.

Dr. G. Y. Gillespie spent Wednesday at Oxford, visiting the old home where he was reared. His son, Dr. G. Y. Gillespie Jr., of Greenwood, accompanied him.

Miss Dorothy Turner, of Memphis, has been spending a week with her home folks, the J. H. Turner family. Her friend, Miss Catherine Sterling, came Sunday and they will leave for their usual vacation trip down in beautiful Florida.

Mrs. Cora McFee of Coffeeville spent Thursday with her niece, Mrs. R. W. Hyde and family.

Mr. R. W. Hyde of Calhoun City spent the week-end with his home folks. His niece, Miss Edith Chatman of Earle, Ark., has been spending a week with the family.

Mr. E. S. Hill spent several days this week with his daughter, Mrs. Bessie Burford, at Marks.

The many friends of Mrs. Jack Merritt (nee Susie Sykes) will be so sorry to learn of her illness at her home in Biloxi. Her aunt, Mrs. Rosa Conzer has gone to be with her. We understand her trouble is gall stones.

Mrs. Chester Latham of Memphis, with her sweet little daughter, Anita, is spending awhile with her mother, Mrs. Maule Swanson.

The many friends of Mr. J. M. Grantham were so glad to see him out here for church Sunday. He had been quite ill for some time and now we hope he will continue to improve. A splendid man is Mr. Grantham, loved and appreciated by all who know him.

Misses Mattie Bell Partridge, Barbara and Nelson Kingsland were off Monday to enter school at MSCW.

Mrs. J. E. Partridge came home from Grenada Hospital Friday and her many friends are happy to know she is improving.

Attended preaching at Tie Plant Sunday evening and heard Rev. A. W. Bailey preach a good sermon to a church full of people. And they have a wide-awake Missionary Society too (they call it something else now, and we can't think what it is) and Mrs. Bailey is some worker and she knows how to make others ditto.

Ann Morris says he is going to give his subscription to the GCW soon (if he does not, the next time we go to Tie Plant we are going to pick his pockets).

Our brother, G. T. Sledge, left the jar of salt on the breakfast table, and in his hurry to get off to Grenada, dumped a spoon full in his coffee—haven't quit laughing yet.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Storrie and their handsome six-year-old son, Billie, were over from Itta Bena Friday enroute to Grenada Hospital to visit their young friend, Miss Mary Ann Scott. We are happy over this splendid pastor's promotion in his church work, but we still miss them at Duck Hill. A finer, sweeter family never lived at Duck Hill. Billie was born here.

Frank Turner Jr., who has been visiting his parents at Tie Plant, left for his home in Utah Monday. A very handsome young man who has made good and holds a very responsible position with "Uncle Sam". No wonder his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, are very proud of him. He had not been home in several years, but expects to return next summer. We all think he saw some blonds he was interested in.

J. C. Sledge Jr., Robert Raper, and "Pete" Woods returned for their second year at State College Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Norwood and daughter Grace visited Enpora Friday. Grace left Sunday for Sunflower Junior College. This is her second year.

Mrs. N. W. Carver visited her mother, Mrs. Lula Caffey while Mr. Carver and Kathryn accompanied Onnie Mae to MSCW. Their home is in Ruleville.

FRIENDSHIP HOME DEM. CLUB MET WITH MRS. ALDRIDGE

The Friendship Home Demonstration Club held its first regular meeting September 2nd in the home of the president, Mrs. Nettie Aldridge.

Roll call was answered by an account of a funny experience. Minutes were read and approved, and a motion was made and carried to change the hour of meeting from 2:30 to 2 o'clock during the winter months.

The topic of discussion for the afternoon was "Grooming". A short talk was given by Mrs. Vivian Taylor on how to sit, stand, and walk gracefully. Mrs. Neely discussed posture, demonstrating three types of shoes (those with high, medium, and low heels) explaining their relation to posture and to health. She also discussed other points of grooming, namely: proper care of teeth and nails, hair brushing, correct shades of rouge and lipstick, blending of powder, and the use of baking soda in the bath. Minor demonstrations were a unique pot holder, and a corsage made of straw flowers.

Mrs. Purdie conducted a memory contest and presented the winner, Mrs. Aldridge, a pretty powder puff.

The meeting was adjourned by a pledge of cooperation between members and president.

HOLCOMB METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

HOLCOMB WSCS TO HOLD CHARTER MEETING

The charter meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held in the Holcomb Church Sunday night, September 15, at 7:15. An interesting program will be given. All the ladies of our church are urged to be present, and become a charter member of the society. Everybody is welcome.

We will have our church-wide Stewards meeting at Sparta Church Monday night, September 16th, at 6 o'clock. All stewards come and bring your lunch. We will have supper together and then have our business session. All stewards be sure and be present.

Present.

The 4th Quarterly Conference will be held at Sparta Wednesday, September 18th. This is an important conference, so make your arrangements to be there. All officials for the next conference year will be elected. Preaching at 11 o'clock by the District Superintendent. All business will be transacted in the afternoon. Let's have a full attendance of our officials for this meeting.

This Conference year is rapidly drawing to a close. Annual Conference meets at Columbus November 6th. I feel that we have had a good year. Revivals have been held in each church with good results. We have received 51 into our churches by profession and 13 by letter, making a total of 64.

I am hoping our financial report will tally with our report on increase.

We had a full financial report last year, and I believe we will have one again this year. I will not be satisfied with anything less, and I don't believe you will either. This is one of the best circuits and we have some of the best people in the North Mississippi Conference, so let's hold our standards high and do the Lord's work in as good or better fashion than we do our own. I have tried to serve you faithfully, and I am counting on you to do your part, and I believe you will.

Let's be more loyal in our church attendance the remainder of this year. Don't plan your visits on your church Sunday, and if you have company bring them to church. It will make us feel better. God's hour comes usually once a week, sometimes oftener. The least we are asked to do is to give God one hour a week, but many, even church members, are not willing to do that—they deliberately use God's hour for some other purpose. They are cheating God and themselves. When God's hour draws near in the church of your own faith, give up all less important things and come to the house of prayer. Be loyal to God.

I am asking again that as we come to the close of our year's work, let's do all we can to make our report what it ought to be. I want you to count on me, and I am counting on you, and God is counting on all of us. May we not disappoint Him?

Your pastor,
A. W. BAILEY

"Scatterbrain" was on at the flickers Monday night at the Grenada Theatre. This picture ranks Miss Canova with other Hollywood fool actors and actresses such as the Marx Brothers, Martha Raye, and the Kitz Brothers, and others in whom the gift of comedy rises to genuine proportions.

Grenada's beautiful "Miss Grenada", Ann Neely, was wearing a blue dress Sunday, presumably getting in practice. She is going to M. S. C. W. this year.

The "Little Honey" left for Center College, in Danville, Kentucky, Sunday, on the Panama Limited. She promised several of us, Drug Store Cowleys a kiss if we would come down to the train to see her off. Unfortunately, dog-dog-dog, I was trailing over the country with Francis Hill and missed this delightful treat.

College is going to get a whole batch of our pretty girls. It will also get a lot of the ugly men folk. That will help offset the loss of the females.

After a group of 100 youngsters went through Chicago on a tour, the tour director mailed back to the hotel where they had stopped a package containing: Eleven small spoons, five salad forks, one silver tray, two napkins, 17 washcloths, 2 bath towels, 28 small ash trays, three large ash trays, two water glasses, nine hotel signs, 24 shoe bags and a knife—Lexington Advertiser.

The mother was defending her son and said, "After all, he's only a boy and boys will say their wild words." The father, however, was not to be fooled. He said, "I wouldn't mind it if he did not mix in so much rye."—Lexington Advertiser.

In the United States there are eight great rivers: the Hudson, Delaware, Potomac, Missouri, Columbia, Ohio, Colorado and Mississippi. If we took turns at pushing the eight rivers ought to be able to carry the spies and foreign agents in our country.—McComb Journal.

Francis Hill and I, in the company of the two Dean Sisters, went up to Memphis Tuesday night. We went up on the Peabody Roof where Hal Kemp and his famous orchestra are playing an engagement. There is a lot that I intended to tell about that trip but Francis has already told it. He spread the ill news Wednesday morning while our paper comes out on Thursday.

Joyce Matthews has a wonderful personality. She seems to be in a good humor all the time; always has something pleasant to say. If all of us old grouches would take a lesson from Joyce we would make this old world a much brighter place in which to live.

The name of the new synthetic silk recently placed on the market—Nylon—is said to have been derived from the first letters of the phrase: "Now You Lousy Old Nipponese!"—Lexington Advertiser.

After his store was robbed for the third time, Henry Shippen of St. Paul hung up a sign saying: "Burglars: Your Welcome is Worn Out."

If nothing develops to get us in trouble with some of our belligerent neighbors and those who are pushing our preparedness program do not die of old age, the United States is going to be prepared for almost any eventuality within the next decade—Port Gibson Revue.

The two houses of Congress differ with each other on major points threefold concerning the Burke-Wadsworth Conscription Bill, viz:

1. The Fish 60-day delay clause. No delay was provided in the Senate-approved version.
2. Provision for forcing industry to co-operate with the defense program. The Senate authorized the Government to take over nonco-operating plants by condemnation proceedings. The House provided they could be commandeered on a "fair rental" basis.
3. Age limit of those who must register for the selective draft. The Senate bill set this range at 21 to 31, the House bill at 21 to 45.

The two Houses should compromise the matter immediately: pass the Conscription Bill without any more dickering around. Time is fleeting while President Roosevelt calls for all possible speed. If Congress does not hurry up and pass the bill we suggest that someone introduce a bill delaying the emergency.

William Winter Speaks--

the scarlet Nazi banner. Let's stop a minute and think. Would we be enjoying the blessings of our democracy if our forefathers had taken this indifferent attitude? My friends, the indifference of the American people is the deadliest enemy that we have today. God grant that some day the people of America will learn that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

The foundation upon which this glorious government of ours rests is the Constitution. Though for more than a century and a half the rains of discord and the fires of tyranny have beat upon it, this structure still stands firm for it is founded not upon sands that shift with the ebb and flow of the tide but upon an everlasting rock. Every ounce of strength, every drop of sweat and blood given in the building of the government is beautifully portrayed in the colors of our red, white and blue.

In times of peace these stars and stripes have given us a feeling of security and safety; on the field of battle they have given men new strength and courage. Its glorious folds have floated proudly from Bunker Hill through the bloody forests of Argonne. And now once again, after twenty years of blessed peace, another war, far greater than the last, is standing at our threshold. Again we fear that the youth, the strong and the capable of our land, will be sent forth to die on the field of battle. If this becomes necessary, it will only mean that once more we shall make good with our lives and our fortunes the great faith to which we were born.

Let us wrap each thread of the stars and stripes about our hearts and resolve that we will in life and in death, now and forever, stand by our nation's flag. It has floated over our graves; let it also, we pray, float over our graves. And let exemplify always our observance of the America's Creed:

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable, founded upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it my duty to my country to love it, to support its constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all of our friends and neighbors who were so good and kind in rendering so much help to us in the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

We also want to thank those for their many nice floral offerings. May God's richest blessings rest upon you all.

DENLEY-DOWNS

On Saturday evening, Sept. 7, 1940, Mr. Barksdale Denley and Miss Ella Mae Downs were united together by the Rev. E. R. Henderson, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, in Grenada. The vows were said in the home of the pastor, with a few close friends attending.

This splendid young couple will make their home in Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Denley both were residents of Fulterville.

CELEBRATES 92ND BIRTHDAY

Mrs. S. F. Bridges, beloved mother of Mrs. Hal Calhoun and the late Mr. Victor Bridges, and grandmother of Mrs. Rogers Pleasants, Miss Allen Bridges and Mrs. Dudley Crawford, was honored on her 92nd birthday, on Wednesday, September 11, 1940, at her home of College Street by her daughter and grand daughters keeping open house all day to friends and neighbors. Mrs. V. A. Bridges assisted her sister, Mrs. Calhoun, with entertainment of guests.

The home was decorated with gift flowers from the gardens of friends. On this day Mrs. Bridges received many lovely birthday presents. She was the recipient of numerous calls, messages of love and congratulations. At noon a charmingly planned dinner was served in three courses. Seated were: Mrs. Bridges, her daughter, Mrs. Calhoun and two daughters, Mrs. James Pleasants and Crawford, and Mrs. V. A. Bridges and daughter, Miss Allen, the two young sons of Mrs. Pleasants, Hal and Roger.

We take this occasion to congratulate Mrs. Bridges. May she live many more years, imparting cheer and love, graciousness and inspiration to her family and friends as she has for so many years past.

CIRCLE NO. 3 OF WSCS

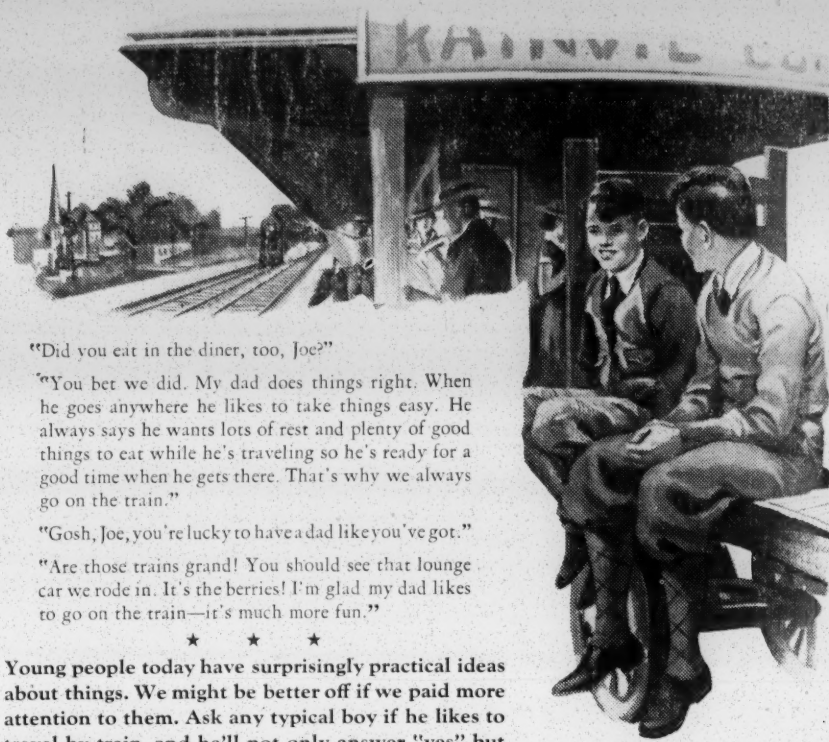

Circle No. 3 of the WSCS enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Leighton Finney of Glenwild Monday afternoon at regular meeting time. Members were served delicious refreshments at the beginning rather than at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Waterman led the devotional reading the 23 Psalm from a Bible that has been in the Finney family for almost 130 years. The study leader then reviewed "In Migrant Land" from the September Outlook as preparation for the fall study.

At the conclusion of the business Mrs. Finney invited the members of the Circle to make a tour of the grounds and the banquet hall of the Glenwild mansion.

Sixteen members were present, including two new members, Mrs. Lee Sloan and Miss Belle Knox.

"Did you eat in the diner, too, Joe?"

"You bet we did. My dad does things right. When he goes anywhere he likes to take things easy. He always says he wants lots of rest and plenty of good things to eat while he's traveling so he's ready for a good time when he gets there. That's why we always go on the train."

"Gosh, Joe, you're lucky to have a dad like you've got."

"Are those trains grand! You should see that lounge car we rode in. It's the berries! I'm glad my dad likes to go on the train—it's much more fun."

Young people today have surprisingly practical ideas about things. We might be better off if we paid more attention to them. Ask any typical boy if he likes to travel by train, and he'll not only answer "yes" but tell you why.
